Lithuanian citizens who are identified as victims of human trafficking abroad can be assisted by the diplomatic or consular mission of the Republic of Lithuania in a destination country in cooperation with specialised NGO and the police, if necessary.

A written document should be issued with the following information: personal data, brief description of the case, including provided assistance, health status and needs, conclusion of risk assessment, information on initiated investigation, contacts of the victim, responsible law enforcement officer (if this case is known by law enforcement) and contact details of the responsible NGO representative. See Human Trafficking Victim Identification Card used in Lithuania in the “Resources” section

EU citizens who are identified as victims of human trafficking in Lithuania can be assisted by specialised NGO in cooperation with diplomatic and consular mission of respective country and the police, if necessary.

Third country nationals who are identified as victims of human trafficking in Lithuania can be assisted by specialised NGO or IOM Vilnius Office in cooperation with diplomatic and consular mission of respective country and the police, if necessary.

IOM Vilnius office provides following voluntary return assistance to third country nationals:

- Consultations on all issues related to the return;
- Interpretation of consultations;
- Legal consultations;
- Assistance in obtaining travel documents necessary for the return;
- Travel arrangements, routing, ticketing, payment for excess baggage;
- Temporary accommodation before departure, and food rations;
- Transit assistance during the travel;
- Meeting in the country of origin upon return;
- A pocket allowance prior to departure;
- Additional assistance to vulnerable persons depending on individual needs (consultations with doctor or psychologist, medical or humanitarian escort to the country of origin);
- Reintegration assistance is provided in kind other than cash (by paying for the necessary goods and/or services directly to suppliers) and is aimed at income generating activities.

Foreign victims of human trafficking are entitled to receive the same long-term assistance as citizens of the Republic of Lithuania within the limits of available funds. Assistance is organised and coordinated by specialised NGOs in cooperation with the administration and social service of the municipality where the foreigner is registered. Based on the Law on Social Services, municipalities are responsible for providing and financing social services and assistance for residents of the municipality. However, municipalities are not eligible specifically to seek any reimbursement/extra funding for assisting officially identified victims of trafficking who are residents in the municipality.
